

THE GIFT OF IMAGINATION

words by Elisabetta Romanò

A GIFT IS A THOUGHT FOR SOMEONE WE LOVE, A SWEET REMINDER OF AFFECTION AND GRATITUDE. BUT A GIFT IS ALSO A TALENT, AN INNATE QUALITY THAT MAKES GREAT THINGS HAPPEN, LIKE THE DESIGNS OF THESE EIGHT PRECIOUS IDEAS!

GREEN
G

In designing the Icon sofa, Michele Menescardi was inspired by a true icon in the history of Natuzzi: the model 641, from 1989. Its soft shapes and its rounded and curved appearance recall the forms of the company's tradition, updating them with contemporary and deconstructed lines: what a nice tribute!

The message of Tubini, this nice ceramic vase with a hydrolept finish, is clear: a bunch of tubes, and not flowers, designed to accommodate not only flowers but also kitchen utensils, materials for DIY, or to be left empty, like a modern sculpture. Tubini looks like a tree and belongs to the CoDe collection by Calligaris, designed entirely by young designers.

INDIGO
I

TN-AI-Modern is part of the Beija Flor's Tile Deco Sticker collection, which can be pasted on the kitchen tiles, or the bathroom tiles or in any other place, according to one's imagination: a sparkling way to transform a corner of the house or, why not, an entire room!

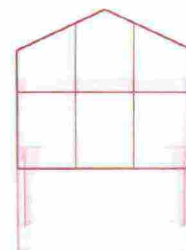

Curious, amusing and original, with its armrest reminiscent of the folded lapel of a coat, Kite, this Porro's armchair designed by Gamfratesi, is enveloping and sophisticated. Kite is young, Kite is cool and, colored or not, it's a beauty indeed!

FUCHSIA
F

Penelope the armchair made for Marac, in a limited series, is hand woven by Un Pizzo and takes its cue from the technique of weaving on a frame and embroidery on mesh, revisited in a contemporary key using a large soft rope suitable for outdoor use.

Villa is one of the flagship pieces of the Kartell Kids line, designed by great designers and intended for young design enthusiasts.

Fabio Novembre plays with scale architecture to build a transparent doll house. transposing his personal experience with his two daughters in this micro architectures, he creates small villas for the dreams of adults and kids alike.

TURQUOISE
T

The Roof Chair is a game and equally a fun-filled and functional item with multiple uses. Designed by Spalvieri & Del Ciotto for Magis, is a soft, flexible roof on which to sit or to climb, to play or to hide, even to slide or to ride! For use alone or in company, its tubular aluminium frame ensures both absolute lightness and stability.

eS is a new systems of different-sized, modular sofas, designed by Tiziano Carneletto for Twils. Characterized by the unique angle of the armrest, with its chrome-plated steel skid-base, and soft, textured quilted upholstery, it's an invitation to relax!